E - JIHO
November 2019

Theme & Slogan 2019: Embrace Change: Transformation (Walk in Peace)

BODHI DAY SERVICE

Sunday, December 8, 2019, English Service at 8:00 a.m.

Speaker: Rev. Kerry Kiyohara

Resident Minister at Makawao Hongwanji

Note change in time of service

Breakfast will be served following service

This is the day to commemorate Sakyamuni Buddha's attainment of Awakening. According to legend, the historic event took place on December 8 as the first light of day began to glow in the eastern sky. By his example, Sakyamuni demonstrated that it was possible for man to become a Buddha---a fully Awakened Person. All human beings, therefore are in possession of this potentiality---Buddha Nature---which when awakened and cultivated enables them to achieve supreme wisdom and compassion. This day signifies the dawn of humanity's universal emancipation from suffering and unawareness.

FLOWERS FOR OUR ALTAR

We all love the Gatha "Flowers at Amida's Altar" because it reminds us of the beauty and impermanence of life which is a fundamental teaching of Buddhism. We would like to ask for your help in providing fresh flowers to adorn our altar. If you are able to help, please contact the temple office to have your name placed on a list so we can contact you from time-to-time to see if you might have flowers available. Thank you very much for your kokua and generosity!

Mahalo,
Rev. Blayne

Our temple is spruced up and looking good thanks to all the members who came out for our annual clean up on November 17, 2019. Just like manju making, everyone working together made the work go faster & easier. Whether members were moving pews & cleaning light fixtures in the temple, cleaning the large number of louvers we seem to have in our facilities, tidying up the storage areas, or cooking food for everyone, everyone had a part in the success of this project. We even had time to knock a couple of capital projects off our list while we had the manpower.

As we approach the Thanksgiving season, these two projects-along with many others-shows our Kyodan has much to be thankful for. When we can get everyone to pitch in and help, amazing things can be accomplished. We have various groups & organizations within our temple working to keep Kona Hongwanji functioning, but the Kyodan is not a small or mysterious group. The Kyodan is all of us working together to keep our temple vital. If you want to see the Kyodan, all that is required is a mirror.

Happy Thanksgiving to you and your families!

A Lifelong Gift of Gratitude
Rev. Blayne Higa

On the long journey of human life, faith is the best of companions; it is the best refreshment on the journey; and it is the greatest possession. –A Buddhist Teaching

During the holidays, our thoughts often turn to the giving and receiving of gifts. We normally think of gifts as physical objects that we may or may not actually need. However, the numerous holy days in December are truly a time to reflect on the intangible gifts of the spirit that we receive throughout the year. As Buddhists, we celebrate the Great Awakening of Shakyamuni Buddha and we rejoice in the promise of universal liberation through the Dharma. We are fortunate to receive this gift of the Buddha’s teachings which enable us to awaken to the working of Wisdom and Compassion in our lives. When we receive the life-transforming Dharma as a spiritual gift, we naturally share our appreciation and joy through our thoughts, words, and actions. The greatest gift we can give to our children and grandchildren is our gift of faith in the Dharma.

When I’m in the office I like to leave the temple open for anyone to visit. One day an adorable little girl who attends our preschool and her father walked in and asked if they could offer incense. The act of offering incense and placing one’s hands together in gassho is a common practice in Buddhism. It is a beautiful expression of gratitude and faith symbolizing the oneness of all life. I observed how this father carefully taught his daughter how to offer incense and to place her tiny palms together in gassho. I noticed that she tiptoed and struggled to place the pinch of ground incense into the burner, so the next time they visited, I set up a wooden step so she could more easily reach the top.

Looking forward to their afternoon visits, I’ve been preparing the incense and the wooden step in anticipation of their arrival. The little girl and one of her parents have been coming often to offer incense before they go home. Each time they visit, the little girl greets me with a warm joyful smile. One day, she gave me a little bag of treats, flashed her amazing smile, and then quickly ran back to her mother. While I was grateful for her thoughtfulness, the most wonderful gift is simply watching this family offer incense and gassho together. Each time they visit, I marvel at the beautiful gift of faith they give to each other.

This little girl and her parents remind me that cultivating a heart of gratitude is a lifelong gift of faith. They teach me that gassho is truly a gift and remind me how we should approach life with palms pressed together in reverence, gratitude, and joy. Living in gassho is living with the Nembutsu in our hearts. Namo Amida Butsu.

Daily Morning Service

Start your day with gratitude by chanting the Shoshinge together. A daily morning service is held Monday through Saturday beginning at 8:00 am and 7:30 am on Wednesdays.

Written by Shinran Shonin, the Shoshinge (Hymn of True Entrusting) is the most popular chant in the Hongwanji tradition because it summarizes the basic teaching of the Pure Land Way and expresses Shinran's gratitude to Amida Buddha and the Seven Masters.

Sutra chanting has a meditative quality which settles our heart and mind, helping us to hear the calling voice of the Buddha. As the Dharma is heard and received, our chanting becomes an expression of profound gratitude for the Buddha's compassion.

Join in the chanting or simply sit and listen to the beautiful words of Shinran. All are welcome!

Mindfulness Monday

Begin the week with a moment of contemplation and self-reflection at our meditation session. Join us on Mondays from 6:30 pm to 7:30 pm for quiet sitting, walking meditation, and sutra chanting. As we calm our mind and body, we can focus on the present moment and hear the calling voice of wisdom and compassion in our lives. All are welcome!

Meditation sessions will be held on November 4, 18 and 25.

Compassionate Care

Providing a compassionate presence through spiritual care is a primary way of caring for Sangha. The Dharma offers guidance and support for our whole lives and especially during times of difficulty. I am here to be a companion to you on life's journey and am available for a private consultation, hospital, or home visitation. Please contact the temple office at 808-323-2993 to schedule an appointment. -Rev. Blayne

Rev. and Mrs. Shinji Kawagoe from the Hamakua Four Temples joined us for our Eitaikyo Sangha Memorial Service on November 3rd.

Mayor Harry Kim was our Guest Speaker for our Veteran’s Appreciation Service on November 10th sponsored by the Kona Hongwanji Cub Scouts Pack 12.

Obon season may be over but bon dances are still going strong.

It was another heart pounding night of Taiko drums and bon dancing held at Hale Halawai on November 1st at the finale of the Kona coffee lantern parade.

Parade participants and spectators were treated to a mini bon dance lead by many of our temple dancers, Jr. YBA members and of course accompanied by our Kona Hongwanji Taiko Group. We were also fortunate to have Randal Smith and his group Momiji No Ha do two performances for us.

Great job to everyone! We had a lot of great compliments from a lot of people even visitors from as far as Canada who said this event was one of the funniest things they did since they've been here. They also mentioned they loved listening/watching our drummers from that very enthusiastic boy with the glasses (hummm Trent) down to that cute little boy (Harrison)....ok you two owe extra push ups now LOL! But to all of the drummers you all did a fantastic job.

So thank you to all who helped put this event together from the dancers, drummers, performers, sound system set up and our Reverend. Without all of your support none of this would have been possible.

Arigato and mata tanomimasu!!!!

Veteran Appreciation Day Service

It was our first Veterans appreciation day service. We were honored to have Special Guest Speaker: The Honorable Mayor Harry Kim. A veteran himself, he reminded us of not only the sacrifices made by military while they served, but also that we need to improve upon the services provided to wounded veterans when they return home.

Each scout in attendance received a Special Recognition Certificate from Governor David Ige. (presented by Liaison Susan Kim) and a certificate of Appreciation for participating in flag pole installation at the Veterans Cemetery. (presented by Mayor Harry Kim).

Veteran's Day

Pack 12 participated in the Veteran's Day Ceremony held out at the Veterans Cemetery. Kaius Beckett posted our pack flag during the Posting of Colors. Our scouts helped to place an American flag on each and every grave.

Two memorable moments occurred. First it was such a "Chicken Skin" moment to see the flag flying on the Pu'u overlooking the cemetery. Second: Mr. Yasunori Deguchi WWII 442nd Infantry was honored at the ceremony. Thank you Hualalai Regency staff who prepared Mr. Deguchi to attend the ceremony. Cub Master Glenn transported Mr. Deguchi. Cub Master Glenn stated, to see Mr. Deguchi, in uniform and engaged with conversations and smiling made all the effort to get him there so worth it. Thank you Hiroki Ishimaru for transporting Mr. Deguchi back to Hualalai Regency.

Flag Pole Installed on Pu'u at West Hawaii Veterans Cemetary

Over one year ago, Minoru Hanato from the Disabled American Veterans presented the flag pole idea at the Aloha Council Kona District Scout meeting & Pack 12 accepted to take the lead! It has been a dream of the Kona Chapter of the Disabled American Veterans to have a flag fly above the Cemetery whenever there was a special event there such as Veterans Day and Memorial Day. Cub Scout Pack 12, along with Disabled American Veterans Kona, Konawaena High School ROTC and Isemoto Contracting Kona has formed an alliance to place the flag pole on a hill above the Veterans Cemetery. Letters were sent out to Lowe's, Home Depot and HPM requesting donations of supplies and material needed. Work days were scheduled for October 18th and 19th, 2019, but it took 3 days, 109 bags of cement and hundreds of volunteer work hours to complete the project. The flag pole was completed before the Veterans Day event.

Thank you to Cub Master Glenn, David Magallanes, Minoru Hanato, Major John Naki (Konawaena JROTC Students), Pack 12 scouts and Parents, Rico Pacatang, Ronin Fukushima, Ryan Magallanes and Michael Wolfe.

Lantern Parade

We lead this year's Kona Coffee Cultural Festival Lantern Parade, which started from Kailua pier to Hale Halawai. Our Cub Scouts were so excited to be upfront with the American Flag (colors), Pack flag and Pack banner. Bryson Dagdag of Troop 59 carried the American Flag along with Jack Ningeok Ross (T59) who bared the Pack Flag. It was nice to see people stand up as we approached with the American Flag.

All you can eat Pancake Breakfast/Silent Auction/Rummage Fundraiser Mahalo

What a great day it was to have delicious pancakes, scrambled eggs, rice, Fried rice Denver omelets, Portuguese sausage, spam, smokies, cake, pineapples, papayas, cantaloupes and juice, tea or coffee. Yum Yum!

Thank you Corner:

1. Our cooking crew: Dane Hiromasa, Tyrus Takimoto, Chad Basque, Chance Hanato- Wells, Alvin Iranon, Alle Transfiguration, Dale Kabei, chief Michael Nakamoto and our Pancake batter expert Wayne Sakamoto.

This year our pancake and grill ace Cub Master Glenn Hirowatari was assisted by Ronin Fukushima and Dane Ushiroda

2. To all the parents and grandparents who donated items for our silent auction and rummage. Rebekah Diama, mother of scout, Macie Daniels spearheaded and did an excellent job running the rummage section.

3. Of course the event is only successful with the help of hard workers. The parents/grandparents of our scouts worked hard to help set up the hall, cut the fruits and guided the scouts in cracking the eggs Friday evening. On Saturday all parents helped out by either: cooking, serving the breakfast, selling & collecting tickets or being runners. And we are so grateful for all those that stayed and helped to clean up.

We also provided pancake breakfasts to HOPE Charity and Kailua Kona Clean & Sober House, which they were very thankful to help feed their less fortunate clients!

4. Dee Ono - Seeking donations for our Fundraiser

5. Cal Kona – Brent Sasaki,

6. Honaunau Market –Carol Kiriara

7. Shawn Cantor - Musician

8. To all the business' that donated monies, gift certificates or merchandise towards our Silent auction.

Happy Halloween – Trunk or Treat

The ghouls, goblins, ninjas and princess' were out and about in the parking lot on October 28th. Our annual "Trunk or Treat". The scout parents had out done the previous years. Each parent parked their car and set up their ghoulish stations. This year there were a few bean bag games, darts, ball toss and nerf games. The topper of the event was Caramel Apples...YUMMY. Thank you Den Leader Dee Ono with helpers Lorna Matsuoka and Cub Master Glenn assisted in dipping the apples. Dee provided the caramels, crock pot and all the delicious toppings. The Cub Scouts, parents, siblings, preschoolers and friends had a chance to make plain caramel apples or they could choose to add sprinkles. Each scout was thought safety on handling food and hot pot. This was a great example of teaching scouts and having fun at the same time. Dee Ono also provided as prizes: pretzels, pencils, stickers and candies. The scouts were in charge of planning the games as part of requirements towards earning awards. Thank you, parents for providing the games and goodies for this event. All family members, scout friends and Kona Hongwanji preschool was invited to participate. Great job Scouts!!!

Cub O Ree – Camp Honokaia

Several of our scouts participated in this year's overnight camping. Cub O Ree gives Cub Scouts an opportunity to experience the fun and adventure of going camping while having the opportunity to work on related rank requirements. The event Featured: Movies Friday night and a day of activities on Saturday such as: BB Gun, archery, obstacle course, painting wooden shields, made slime played Gaga ball and cooked pizza in a dutch oven.. All the scouts had a grand time.

Induction Night:

Sunday Sept 22nd our Pack's official welcome to all Cub Scouts and Parents into Pack 12. First a Uniform inspection was held for all the scouts. The parents were more nervous that the scouts themselves. All worried if the patches were placed correctly on the shirts, if the neckerchief was twirled correctly. This was a great learning experience for all. Everyone learned to take pride in being a Cub Scout. Our very own Cub Master Glenn performed the uniform inspections. After the scouts completed their inspection, off they went to partake in the vast choices of ono foods from a variety of salads, main dishes and desserts.

While the scouts were having their dinner, they didn't realize that the Cub Master was busily tallying the scores. Scores are based on General appearance, Cap, Neckerchief & slide, Shirt, Belt, Pants/shorts, Socks, Shoes, Registration and Insignia placement plus a few questions to make sure that they know what is happening around our country.

After dinner all the scouts were lined up and Cub Master Glenn gave each one a wooden nickel (indicates that they have completed uniform inspection).

Scouts were given their awards that they earned by selling Camp Cards.

Pack #12 excepting boys and girls between Kindergarten and 5th grade. We are having a great time and keeping very busy. If anyone is interested in joining please call Glenn Hirowatari 322-2278. Meetings are Mondays from 5:00 pm to 6:00 pm. Extended days Wednesdays & Thursdays at 5:00 pm to 6:00pm.

Upcoming Events:

- November - Youth Protection Training
 church Clean up
 Koyason Childrens blessings
- December - Christmas Caroling & Christmas party
